Only one seiner arrived this morning, sch. Loring B. Haskell, having about 70 bbls. These were secured in the big haul of Saturday, being left in the seine of sch. Amos Cutter, and being turned over to the Haskell.

The netters went out last night and met with fairly good success, between 4000 and 5000 being secured, which sold at the various firms at the Fort for 9 1-2 cents apiece.

The fare of sch. Arthur Binney sold to Hall & Co. for $15.50.

GOOD TRIP.

Sch. Tacoma lands Good Fare of Fresh Halibut.

Novel Experience in Catching Swordfish.

Sch. Tacoma, Capt. Daniel McDonald arrived from Quero Bank this morning with a fine trip of 45,000 halibut. The schooner left here four weeks ago, but has been on the fishing ground but three weeks, putting into Boothbay for bait. The crew struck the fish in abundance and had fine weather until last Thursday, when the heavy storm struck them southeast of Cape Sable. Capt. McDonald reports it as one of unusual severity, and for three hours they run under reefed foresail, and came out of the gale with no damages.

During the trip they had a rather unusual experience in the way of fishing, catching a monster swordfish with the sounding line. They were sounding on the Banks, the captain and two of the crew being in the dory. Suddenly the line began to pull heavy, and one of the crew remarked that the tide was pretty strong, but it was soon found that some sort of a big fish had fouled the line and become tangled up in it, and on pulling it to the surface, it was found that they had a monster swordfish. The minute the fish broke water, Capt. McDonald struck him with a gaff, the sharp-point going directly through his heart and killing him almost instantly. They also got three other big swordfish on the trip, but not in this novel way. The captain reports speaking schs. Oregon and Niagara on the Banks.

The fare of fish sold to the Atlantic Halibut Company for 12 and 9 cents per pound for white and gray. This will give Capt. McDonald and his crew a fine stock and share. Capt. McDonald is one of the youngest of the skippers, and is an enterprising and ambitious young man, and is deserving of this good fortune.

Sale of Bank Cod.

The fare of Bank cod of sch. Electa, Capt. Orlando Van Amburg, was sold to George Perkins & Son for $3 per cwt. for large and $2.25 for medium, a considerable advance over Board of Trade prices.
